

PENCIL Principal for a Day® Site Visits

Time	Description (School and Business Partners in Bold)
5/15 9am-11:30am	A session on the value of recycling for 3 rd , 4 th and 5 th grade students from PS 18 who are part of the PricewaterhouseCoopers “Earn Your Future” Program
5/16 9:00am-3:00pm	A session about the truth in advertising from 4 th graders from PS 170 who are part of the PricewaterhouseCoopers “Earn Your Future” Program
5/16 930am-12pm	Neuberger Berman volunteers will accompany 6 th and 7 th grade students from Frederick Douglas Academy II on a field trip to MoMath to explore careers in mathematics.
5/16 11am-2pm	A session for students from Health Opportunities High School with volunteers from Empire Blue Cross Blue Shield to tackle financial literacy topics such as savings, debit/credit, stocks, and loan repayment
5/16 1pm-3pm	A career panel hosted by volunteers from Deloitte for the students from the High School of Telecommunication Arts and Technology (No Visitors)
5/16 130pm-3pm	Students in the Young Lawyers Club at Brooklyn Preparatory High School will meet with Holland & Knight lawyers to discuss media law including the 1 st amendment, freedom of speech, and fake news
5/16 4pm-6pm	Culminating session for 12 th graders from University Heights High School and their Bloomberg mentors to prepare students for the transition to college.
5/17 9:30am-11:30am	An office visit to Facebook for students in Media, Technology & Design Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs to learn about career pathways and professional environments related to their course of study (SESSION LIMITED)
5/17 930am-11:15am	A session on personal identity for 5 th grade students from PS 18 who are part of the PricewaterhouseCoopers “Earn Your Future” Program
5/17 1230pm-2pm	Students from the High School for Public Service finish their semester of becoming brand strategists by visiting the Elizabeth Arden offices for the opportunity to share their experience in the program with professionals
5/17 1pm-3pm	Final session between students from the Brooklyn Academy for Global Finance and volunteers from JP Morgan Chase to explore all things related to College: College Panel, College Personal Statement, College MATCH, College scholarships, etc.
5/18 9am-12pm	A session on careers and income potential for 5 th graders from PS 22 who are part of the

PENCIL Principal for a Day® Site Visits

	PricewaterhouseCoopers “Earn Your Future” Program
5/18 9am-10am	A panel discussion with Justice Rosalyn Richter and Ryan Rasdall, a legal assistant in the transgender rights project of Lambda Legal Defense Fund, for students at MLK High School for Law, Advocacy and Community Justice
5/18 10am-3pm	Final student presentations by the Young Men’s Leadership Group from MS 226 followed by a career panel featuring JP Morgan Chase staff
5/18 11am-1pm	A session for Hudson High School students led by Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation volunteers featuring a college and career panel and interactive workshop “The Price is Right: College Edition”
5/18 1130am-3pm	“Guppy Tank” App Challenge at CA Technologies where students from four middle schools (TAG, GTP, MS 224, New Heights) will present app ideas to improve the lives of NYers to a panel of judges ala the TV show Shark Tank
5/18 1230-2pm	Students from the High School for Math, Science & Engineering and volunteers from Highbridge Capital will culminate the semester with a discussion about the transition to college.
5/18 12pm-2pm	A career panel hosted by volunteers from Deloitte for the students from the High School of Telecommunication Arts and Technology (No Visitors)
5/18 1pm-230pm	A session where students from the High school for Global Citizenship will demonstrate skills and knowledge acquired during the year by presenting their LinkedIn profiles to their LinkedIn mentors
5/18 2pm-3pm	A hands on session at Maslansky + Partners where Manhattan Business Academy students will learn how focus group dials and assessment works
5/18 2:30pm-4pm	A mock interview session for KIPP students as a part of their Ladders for Leaders Internship pre-employment training. Volunteers from several different companies will support the training.
5/18 3-5pm	A mock interview session for HERO High School students as a part of their Ladders for Leaders Internship pre-employment training. Volunteers from Montefiore Medical Center will support the training.
5/18 330pm-6pm	A roundtable discussion with school leaders and Bloomberg partnership champions followed by a session on financial literacy and college mapping with 11 th graders from University Heights High School and Bloomberg mentors.
5/18 3pm-430pm	A partnership kick off and goal setting session between JetBlue and students (10th graders) from Aviation High School who will work together over the next two years to support students’ post secondary success
5/18 4-6pm	A mock interview session for Hudson High School students as a part of their Ladders for Leaders

PENCIL Principal for a Day® Site Visits

	Internship pre-employment training. Volunteers from Google will support the training.
5/19 8:30am-12:45pm	A session on careers and income potential for 3 rd and 4 th graders from Metropolitan Lighthouse Charter who are part of the PricewaterhouseCoopers “Earn Your Future” Program
5/19 10am-1pm	Students from PS 123 in the Future Marketers Club will practicing for their year-end presentations and wrapping up the commercial for Philips Sonicare toothbrush while receiving guidance from Ogilvy volunteers
5/19 1030am-12pm	A culminating Event with 8 th graders from PS 226 (Brooklyn)who have been in the program since 5 th grade where JP Morgan Chase staff will conduct a career panel as well as help the students with a final analysis of stocks they have all been following for two years
5/19 1:50pm-2:30pm	Students from Urban Assembly School of Business for Young Women will present their business plan competition projects to the Castle Harlan team for the chance to compete in the final session at the Castle Harlan offices on June 6 th